JURY OF SELECTION

Appointed by the Trustees of the Museum

HENRY LEE MCFEE, Painter, New York City.

MARY P. THAYER, Curator, Taft Museum, Cincinnati.

MAHONRI YOUNG, Sculptor, Painter, Etcher, New York.

With the Jury alone rests the decision as to which objects shall be accepted or rejected. Each decision will be based upon the artistic merit of the object under consideration.

The Jury has been selected from non-residents chosen because of sympathetic knowledge of a wide range of artistic mediums. They act without compensation, to promote better art, and as a service to the Museum and the artists in Cleveland.

CERTIFICATES OF MERIT

The Jury will award Certificates of Merit for first, second, and third honors in all classes in which the work offered merits such award, and such Honorary Mentions as they may think necessary.

No entrant will be eligible for the same award two years in succession.

RULES GOVERNING THE EXHIBITION

WORK ELIGIBLE

1. All work entered must be by:
   (a) Artists who now live in Cleveland or Cuyahoga County.
   (b) Artists born in Cleveland or Cuyahoga County and retaining definite connections with Greater Cleveland.
2. Work offered shall have been finished since March 29, 1932.
3. All work entered must be the original production of exhibitor or specified associates.
4. All work produced in shops operated by firms or companies may be entered by the firm as exhibitor, but specific notation must be made on entry blank of
   (a) Name of individual designer, and
   (b) Name of craftsman or craftsmen.
5. Emeritus teachers of The Cleveland School of Art may submit one work each not subject to Jury action.

ENTRIES

6. Entry blank must be filled out and returned to The Cleveland Museum of Art, Station E, Cleveland, Ohio, on or before April 4. Those postmarked later than April 4 will not be accepted.
7. A separate tag, with name of artist and title, must be made out for each object presented; stands, bases, coverings or other accessories to be noted on the tag. The tag must be securely fastened to the object it describes.

GENERAL

8. No accepted work can be withdrawn before close of exhibition, and all works must remain as installed.
9. The Museum will not be responsible for loss or damage to works submitted, no matter how the same may be caused, although the same care will be used as in handling and guarding its own collections.
10. Museum officials shall have the privilege of removing shadow boxes, mounts or accessories at their discretion.
11. Permission to photograph or reproduce works in the exhibition will not be given without the written consent of artist or owner. Permission to photograph accepted works for publicity purposes shall be understood unless specifically denied.

SALES

12. Price of objects entered for sale must not be higher than that asked at artist's studio or elsewhere, and exhibitor agrees not to reduce price for six months after close of exhibition.
13. A commission of 10% will be charged on all sales effected during the exhibition, whether made by Museum or by artist. No work shall be withdrawn from sale except on payment of the 10% commission.

JURY

14. All entries submitted are subject to the decision of the Jury, which is final.
15. The decision of the Jury will be announced by mail not later than May 2. Notices of acceptance or rejection must be carefully preserved as objects will be returned only upon surrender of notices.
16. Notice of awards will be sent confidentially to each winner of awards on the day of the Private View (May 2), mailed to the address given on the entry blank, by special delivery, for the exhibitor's information only.

DELIVERY

17. Exhibits must be delivered and removed by exhibitor or his agent within the specified dates.
18. All objects must be delivered at the Service Entrance (Northwest door) of the Museum between 9 A.M. and 5 P.M. from April 8 to April 15, inclusive (Sunday excepted).

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

Note:—Because of lack of wall space it is hoped that small canvases will be submitted. A picture (including frame) over 20 square feet will be considered as two entries, one over 30 square feet as three entries.

I. PORTRAITS

A. Portraits of living people must have been taken from life with knowledge and consent of subject.

B. Studies not done definitely as portraits are not eligible in Class 2, but may be entered in Class 3.

II. GRAPHIC ARTS

Entrant must indicate number in edition, and number of impressions for sale.

III. BOOKBINDING

If forwarding, design, and tooling are not all by entrant, all artists must be mentioned.

IV. JEWELRY

Entrants may enter ten pieces in this class (two pieces of jewelry being considered one entry), and will be permitted five additional entries in other classes.

POTTERY

A. Same as Jewelry. However, if sets of pottery are entered, each set will count as two entries.

B. Entrant must indicate number in edition and number for sale.

V. PHOTOGRAPHY

A. Prints must be made by entrant or in his studio under his direction.

B. Hand-colored prints will not be admitted.

C. Prints must be unframed but mounted 14¼x19¼ inches. Mounts should be light in color.

D. All prints must have been made since April, 1932.

E. No hand work, other than spotting, may appear on the print, except where it is a part of the accepted technique of the process.

VI. PRINTING

Examples of printing may be entered as five single items, or a number grouped on one mount, each mount counting as one entry. Mounts must fit Museum frames, 14¼x19¼ inches, or 22 x 28 inches.

VII. STUDENTS' WORK

A. For the purpose of exhibition a student is defined as: any person attending classes or receiving instruction or criticisms as an enrolled student in any art school or in any art class, any person who is receiving private lessons or instruction or whose work is being criticised for purpose of instruction.

B. Work actually produced in classroom or on which criticism has been given is ineligible.

C. Each object submitted by student shall have attached a green student tag certifying that work was not produced in classroom or under instruction or criticism. This card shall be signed by the teacher and Director of school.

D. Only students of senior classes of The Cleveland School of Art, The Cleveland School of Architecture, or the equivalent grades in other non-commercial schools, are eligible for awards.

THIRTEENTH EXHIBITION OF CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN OIL PAINTING
THE CLEVELAND MUSEUM OF ART

June 16 to July 16, 1933

A Thirteenth Exhibition of Contemporary American Painting in oil will be held in the Museum from June 16 to July 16 inclusive, as a further development of the Fifteenth Annual Exhibition of Work by Cleveland Artists and Craftsmen.

The Exhibition will consist of ninety paintings by American artists, thirty of which will be by Cleveland artists. The Cleveland paintings will be selected by the Jury of Selection or the Fifteenth Annual Exhibition of Work by Cleveland Artists and Craftsmen.

It is hoped that these will not be pictures that are entered in the current May Show.

RULES GOVERNING ENTRIES

1. Oil Paintings only are eligible for exhibit.
2. Paintings must have been painted since June, 1922.
3. Paintings entered in the Exhibition of Work by Cleveland Artists and Craftsmen may also be entered, if so desired, in this Thirteenth Exhibition of Contemporary American Oil Painting. In this case notation in proper space on entry blank must be made and both buff and red tags must be firmly attached to stretcher or frame when delivered to the Museum.
4. No more than three paintings may be entered by any artist and no more than one can be accepted and exhibited.
5. Entry blank must be filled out and returned to The Cleveland Museum of Art, Station E, Cleveland, Ohio, on or before April 4. Those postmarked later than April 4 will not be accepted.
6. All paintings offered for consideration by the Jury must be delivered at the Service Entrance (northwest door) of the Museum between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. from April 8 to April 15 inclusive (Sundays excepted).
7. Rejected work must be removed from the Museum by the entrant between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. from May 6 to May 20 inclusive (Sundays excepted).
8. Works exhibited and not sold during the exhibition must be called for at the Service Entrance of the Museum between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. from July 18 to July 22 inclusive. They will be delivered only upon presentation of "Notice of Acceptance."
9. The general rules and instructions which govern the Annual Exhibition of Work by Cleveland Artists and Craftsmen apply also to this exhibition.
